📄 Profile

I'm Guan-Yu, but everyone calls me Chris. I have been in software since 2017, I'm experienced in C#, HTML5, MySQL, JavaScript and Python.

For me, part of being adaptable and highly motivated means that I see every opportunity to invest in personal development and growth as invaluable.

I am a results-orientated and highly driven software developer.

Equipped with a diverse and promising skillset, my passion lies in bringing forth expertise in design installation, testing and maintenance of software systems through teamwork, collaboration and innovative thinking.
